

Cynthia Wenzel Cole

Cynthia Wenzel Cole is the owner and founder of Cynergyze, a firm specializing in Public Safety Communications with a focus on interoperability technologies. Cynthia led the technical team which achieve FCC authorization on August 31, 2012 for the initial build-out and operation of the nation's first 700 MHz Public Safety LTE Network in Harris County, Texas. Cynthia brings over 15 years of experience managing trunked radio technologies, standards, platforms and strategies for one of the nation's leading system manufacturers. Cynthia holds a BS in Electrical Engineering, RF Design from the University of Michigan.

COLE LONG BIO

Cynthia Wenzel Cole is the owner and founder of Cynergyze, a firm specializing in Public Safety Communications. Cynthia participates in a variety of public safety communications industry committees, including the APCO Broadband Committee, National Public Safety Telecommunications Council (NPSTC), the (broadband) Early Builders Advisory Council (EBAC) and the Project 25 Technology Interest Group (PTIG). As the primary author of the State of Texas Interoperability Showing, Cynthia lead the technical team which achieve FCC authorization on August 31, 2012 for the initial build-out and operation of the nation's first 700 MHz Public Safety LTE Network in Harris County, Texas.

Cynergyze began operations in March 2013 and is certified as a Women's Business Enterprise (WBE) by the City of Chicago and the Women's Business National Council (WBENC). Cynergyze's staff and partners bring an unusual combination of expertise in the areas of Public Safety LTE 700 MHz Broadband, LTE Interconnectivity, Land Mobile Radio (LMR), Project 25 and tower structural analysis.

Cynthia brings over 15 years of experience from Motorola's land mobile radio group managing trunked radio technologies, platforms and strategies. Cynthia is a native of Michigan, lives in the Chicago area and holds a BS in Electrical Engineering, RF Design from the University of Michigan.