

Dominick Arcuri, P.E., PMP, ENP is a Senior Vice President with RCC Consultants, Inc., in charge of Public Safety Communications consulting in the Mid-Atlantic, Midwest and Southeast regions. He advises clients in areas related to two-way radio technology & standards; radio propagation; in-building coverage; broadband data; 800-MHz rebanding; etc. He has been engaged in the management of engineering and product development in communications and defense electronics over a 33-year period with RCC, Ericsson and General Electric Aerospace. Mr. Arcuri is a registered professional engineer in Virginia, a certified Project Management Professional and an Emergency Number Professional. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, a Master of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from Syracuse University, and a Master of Business Administration degree from the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University. Dominick is a current member of the APCO Broadband Committee and has been active in the Telecommunications Industry Association (TIA) and APCO P25 committees and has previously chaired the committee responsible for Phase II TDMA systems. Prior to joining RCC in 2000, Mr. Arcuri served as Vice President of Engineering of the Land Mobile Radio Division of Ericsson, Inc.

